Requirements for the project

Documents required for submission:

1- Preparing the necessary feasibility study for the project.

2- Financial solvency.

3- Brand

4- The schedule

The necessary technical requirements in coordination with the Ministry of Education and Technical Education:

1- Proposing technical education specializations to operate the school based on its suitability to the surrounding environment, and the future needs of the labor market.

2- Complete the infrastructure of classrooms, laboratories and workshops, in coordination with the General Authority for Educational Buildings and the technical education sector, so that the school will be able to offer new specializations that follow the latest international quality standards, ensuring that the future needs of the local, regional and international labor markets are met, providing opportunities Suitable work for students after graduation.

3- The investor's commitment to all modern standards of technical education, such as green and environmentally friendly schools, in terms of energy conservation and efficiency, smart management, providing students with information technology studies, and providing them with appropriate digital competencies.

4- The commitment of each of these private schools to adopt the professional competency methodology in designing curricula, and providing appropriate industrial environments, to conduct vocational training for students according to the dual education and training system, and schools of applied technology, provided that the education sector adopts the study plans, timelines, and curricula, according to For the plans followed in the official technical schools, especially the applied technology schools.

5- The commitment of investors to apply to the Egyptian Authority for Quality Assurance and Accreditation in Technical Education and Vocational Training to obtain accreditation within five years from the date of starting the operation of the school. (This procedure does not contradict the investors' desire to apply for international accreditation to enhance the school's competitiveness).

6- Providing training courses for students to enable them to be proficient in communicating in English, in addition to a second foreign language (German or Italian) and the use of English in teaching if the technology of specialization so requires.

7- The teachers selected to work in these schools obtain approval from the Technical Education Teachers Academy, and they will issue a license to work from the Professional Academy for Teachers.

8- A percentage of the return will be allocated to spending on developing and raising the efficiency of technical education schools throughout the Republic.